

Assistant/Associate/Full Professor Pharmaceutical Sciences Auburn University

The Department of Pharmacal Sciences at Auburn University's Harrison School of Pharmacy invites applications for multiple 12-month tenure-track faculty positions in Pharmaceutical Sciences and related disciplines. Individuals with expertise in drug metabolism, pharmacokinetics and drug delivery are of particular interest. These positions offer the opportunity to join an expanding enterprise in research in pharmaceutical and biomedical sciences. The School has recently received new funding and opportunities for research enhancement. Auburn University has a new research park on campus with drug development targeted as a potential focus. The research park offers opportunities for technology transfer and entrepreneurial incubation. Opportunities for collaboration are present within the School of Pharmacy as well as with faculty throughout the University including those in the College of Veterinary Medicine, the College of Engineering and the College of Sciences and Mathematics.

Successful candidates are expected to:

- Actively participate in the teaching mission of the Harrison School of Pharmacy at the graduate (M.S., Ph.D.) and professional (Pharm.D.) levels;
- Develop and/or maintain an independent extramurally funded research program;
- Be involved in collaborative research programs;
- Demonstrate a high level of scholarly activity as evidenced by quality publications in peer-reviewed scientific journals and active participation in professional societies; and
- Contribute to Department, School and University service activities.

Applicants must have a demonstrated interest in education of health professionals and graduate students. They must have a Ph.D. or equivalent degree, postdoctoral training and demonstrated research abilities. A professional degree in pharmacy is desirable but not essential. The successful candidate must meet eligibility requirements to work in the U.S. at the time the appointment is scheduled to begin and continue working legally for the proposed term of employment. The candidate selected for this position must be able to meet eligibility requirements to work in the United States at the time appointment is scheduled to begin and continue working legally for the proposed term of employment; excellent communication skills required. Review of applications will begin April 1, 2009 and will continue until the positions are filled. Candidates should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, statements of research and teaching interests as well as the names and addresses (include e-mail address and phone number) of 3-5 references.

Preferably applications should be submitted electronically to Ms. Kandi Dawson, DAWSOKP@auburn.edu or they can be faxed to 334/844-8331.

Auburn, AL offers a unique professional and living environment, and is located approximately 100 miles south of Atlanta, GA, 50 miles from Montgomery, AL, 40 miles from Columbus, GA, and 120 miles south of Birmingham, AL. The Auburn and Opelika communities consist of approximately 100,000 people and offer a high quality of life with excellent schools and recreational opportunities. Auburn is a true multi-cultural college town with all the amenities provided by a full-service university.

Auburn University is one of the nation's premier land-grant institutions and the only publicly funded college of pharmacy in Alabama. In the 2009 edition of U.S. News & World Report, it was ranked 45th among public universities. The University places a high priority on quality undergraduate and professional teaching with a tradition of excellence in research, graduate education, outreach, and service.

Auburn University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer
Women and Minorities are encouraged to apply.